

Kamala Harris “Lady of the Day”

Vice President Elect of the USA

This woman was born in 1964

Is twice what Trump is – and much, much more,
She is of good upbringing and character to match,
And as for determination – she is hard to catch.

Her parents and sister are well up in the world,
And with a good husband – her career is unfurled,
She is multi-careered-to spot number one,
Her position in integrity is second to none.

Her books, show, her genius at large,
She has no trouble to take up to embarge,
Politician, Lawyer, Author, she does at her ease,
Her ability to work, she does as she please.

She cleans the stables of the American underground,
Her judgement and methods are very sound,
She serves the Public by honest means,
Her energy shows – she is full of beans.

She is the right combination for her future task,
A better person – no one could ask,
So good luck to the future -she deserves it well
What good she may do – no mortal can tell.
