

Silent Majority

From "Silent Night" – no cannon roared,
How can I ask? – "How can I afford"
And – man's blind indifference "for the green fields of France"
Which of us cannot say "give me a second chance"

Violence to women comes in several ways,
And not always to bygone far off days,
And children too – before birth and after,
The voters often, bring about disaster.

It is easy to go and look aside,
And say "I don't give a dam about anyone that died"
And rows and rows of headstone stand,
Of those that are murdered, or died by their own hand.

The Corona virus gets us all involved,
And nothing done by selfishness is ever solved,
"Untied we stand – divided we fall".
So, lets get involved and answer the call.
